This past week, the LA Lawyers Philharmonic and Legal Voices held their 5th Annual Concert Extraordinaire at Disney Hall. The concert was hosted by Bill Handel, Esq., and produced by Executive Director Debra Marisa Greene Kaiser.

Under the direction of Gary S. Greene, Esq. (Founder-Conductor) the evenings performance began with an appropriate Flag Day tribute to the 200th anniversary of The Star-Spangled Banner, followed by a masterfully done rendition of O Fortuna from Carmina Burana, which was featured in the motion picture Excalibur, and a special tribute to Selma Moidel Smith, Esq., with the Waltz from Espresso, who has written more than 100 compositions and is listed in the International Encyclopedia of Women Composers. Before intermission the more than 100 attorneys, judges and legal professionals that gather on stage for the purpose of raising funds for individuals who cant afford legal help, dazzled the patrons with Symphony No. 8, Op. 88 in G Minor. This symphony is seldom used in film, but appeared most recently in the 2005 release of Dear Wendy.
